

I support net neutrality. Internet service providers should not be allowed to self regulate. The marketplace, not ISPs should determine which companies and applications thrive. In many areas the ISP (mine is Mediacom) already has what amounts to a monopoly. Deregulation will make them omnipotent.